SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that on the death of K Seshadri Iyengar Diplomate of Agriculture (Bombay University), K Narasimmiengar who had passed the B A Degree Examination in the Vernacular Branch and also the Diploma Examination of Madras in all branches of Agriculture except one or two was appointed on probation Agricultural Lecturer in the Normal School Mysore in Class C IV (old C III) on a fixed pay of Rs 50 with effect from June 1899 He was the best man then available and has given satisfaction in his work. He has recently passed in all the branches forming the course for a Diploma in Agriculture I would therefore confirm him in his appointment and request that Government in consideration of his long service of 5 years may be good enough to sanction a starting pay of Rs 70 in Class C IV for him with effect from 1st July 1902

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H P Bhabha

Inspector General.

2 was there any correspondence on the subject between the I gl and the Govt?

3 was any hope then held out to K Narasimhacengar of advancement on his completing the test for a Diploma in Agriculture?

4 why not should this officials' case lie over until there is a vacancy in Class C IV, to the number in which as per sanctioned scale Govt are unwilling to make any addition unless deemed absolutely necessary? and (5) at any rate why should not the proposal be renewed in time for consideration and orders and incorporation in the next Budget, it being highly undesirable that unseasonable new sanctions involving an increase of expenditure should be asked for unless special urgency and reappropriation from sanctioned allotments could be shown

Enclosures

With reference to the Secretary's Docket No 1017/Ed 25 dated the 19th Instant, has the honour to inform him that the late K Seshadrayyangar Agricultural Lecturer, Normal School Mysore was promoted to class C IV (old class C III) by Government Order No 114/Ed 9 dated 3rd July 1896 and was drawing Rs 50 at the time of his death in March 1897 K Narasimhayyangar the present Agricultural Lecturer under reference was appointed on probation on Rs 50 a month in class C IV (old class C III)

on condition of his being confirmed in the grade after he passed the Diploma Examination He has now obtained the Diploma in Agriculture which has entitled him to confirmation in the grade and to the increments recommended as he has already put in five years' service - There was no correspondence on the subject between the Government and the Inspector General as the appointment was in the gift of the latter

With reference to paras 4 and 5 has the honour to state that the case of K Narasimha Iyengar is not a special one and does not require any addition to be made to the sanctioned scale as he has already been in class C IV and is included in the fixed number of appointments in the grade - K Narasimha Iyengar has besides been working hard for the last five years and has proved a very efficient and successful teacher Under these circumstances it is requested that sanction may be kindly accorded to the recommendation made in this office No 10972/370 of 14/6/1902
